We have audited the accompanying financial statements of Vibha Inc., (a nonprofit organization), which comprise the statement of financial position as of December 31, 2019, and the related statements of activities and cash flows for the year then ended, and the related notes to the financial statements.

Management's Responsibility for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America; this includes the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditor's Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the entity's preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

VIBHA INC.
NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
YEAR ENDED DECEMBER 31, 2019

Note 1. Nature of Activities and Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

This summary of significant accounting policies of Vibha Inc. (a New Jersey non-profit corporation, hereafter “the organization”) is presented to assist in understanding the Organization’s financial statements. The financial statements and notes are representations of the Organization’s management, which is responsible for their integrity and objectivity. These accounting principles conform to generally accepted accounting principles and have been consistently applied in the preparation of the financial statements. The organization is primarily supported by donor contributions and grants.

A. The Organization

The Organization was originally formed as CRY-Child Relief and You, Inc., in 1991 under the laws of the State of New Jersey to help propagate its vision to ensure that every underprivileged child attains his or her right to education, health, and opportunity.

In 2002, the Organization changed its name to Help Them Grow, Inc., and formally ended its affiliation with the India based charitable organization, Cry India. Help Them Grow Inc. also ceased to use the Cry brand name from thereon.

In 2015, the Organization changed its name to Vibha Inc.

B. Basis of Presentation

The organization prepares its financial statements using the accrual basis method of accounting in accordance with Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) Statement ASC 958, Accounting for Contributions Received and Made, Financial Statements of Not-For-Profit Organizations.

C. Classes of Net Assets

In accordance with FASB ASC 958, where applicable, the financial statements report amounts separated by class of net assets:

- Without donor restrictions amounts are those currently available at the discretion of the Board for use in the Organization’s programs.
- Board-designated amounts are unrestricted net assets that are presently designated by the Board to a specific purpose. These amounts can be returned to an unrestricted status by action of the same Board.
- With donor restrictions amounts are those, which are restricted by donors for specific operating purposes or for the acquisition of land, buildings and equipment.

Note 1. Organization and Summary of Significant Accounting Policies - continued

D. Revenue and Expenses

Support is recognized when cash is received or ownership of donated assets is transferred to the Organization. Revenue is recognized when earned.

Temporarily restricted contributions are recognized as contribution income in the Statement of Activities when cash or ownership of donated assets is transferred to the Organization. These contributions are subsequently transferred to the unrestricted fund to cover expenses that have been incurred in satisfaction of those restrictions.

E. Promises to Give

Contributions are recognized when the donor makes a promise to give to the Organization that is, in substance, unconditional. Contributions that are restricted by the donor are reported as increases in net assets without donor restrictions if the restrictions expire in the fiscal year in which the contributions are recognized. All other donor-restricted contributions are reported as increases in net assets with donor restrictions depending on the nature of the restrictions. When a restriction expires, net assets with donor restrictions are reclassified to net assets without donor restrictions.

The Organization uses the allowance method to determine uncollectible promises receivable. The allowance is based on prior years' experience and management's analysis of specific promises made.

F. Fund Income Allocations- Unrestricted and Restricted

All gains and losses arising from the sale, collection or other disposition of investments and fixed assets are accounted for in the fund that owned such assets, according to restrictions placed on the original gift. Ordinary income derived from investments, receivables, and the like, is accounted for in the unrestricted fund.

G. Functional Allocation of Expenses

FASB ASC 958 requires all not-for-profit organizations to classify expenses so that the functional use of resources is shown in the financial statements. Functional classification allocates expenses according to the purpose for which the costs are incurred. Examples of functional classifications are program services (expenses directly related to the purpose for which the organization exists) and supporting activities (those indirectly related to the purposes for which the organization exists but necessary for its operations, i.e., general administrative and fund raising).

In order to comply with FASB requirements, the Organization estimates the costs of providing the various programs and supporting activities of the organization on a functional basis.

H. Cash and cash equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents includes all monies in banks and highly liquid investments with original maturity dates of less than three months.

I. Investments

In accordance with FASB ASC 958-320 Accounting for Certain Investments Held by Not-for-profit Organizations, the Organization records certain investment securities at estimated fair value. The unrealized gain or loss on investments is reflected in the statement of activities. Investment income and gains are reported as increases in net assets without donor restrictions unless their use is limited by donor-imposed restrictions or by law that extends donor restrictions, in which case those amounts shall be reported as increase or decrease in net assets with donor restrictions. The Organization's investment accounts consist of certain actively managed assets allocation growth and income portfolios that invest in style-specific mutual funds which include domestic equities, fixed income securities, cash and money market securities.

J. Property and Equipment

All acquisitions of property and equipment, and all expenditures or improvements that significantly prolong the useful lives of the assets are capitalized. Purchases of property and equipment are recorded at cost. Donations of property and equipment are recorded as support at their estimated fair value at the date of gift.
